

PARADE AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

58th Annual Englewood Back to School Parade

Return this form by August 8, 2020 to englewoodparade@gmail.com

Parade Day: Saturday, August 15, 2020

This day has been designed for Englewood Residents to enjoy a day that promotes the importance of education, unity and peace. Attendees will be able to see a parade procession that showcases Englewood's talent and at the parade finale immediately following the procession at Ogden Park, information will be distributed regarding services that are offered to the community, free food will be distributed, free youth activities and youth performers will be on hand for live entertainment.

As an ambassador you will assist in spreading the word about the parade and helping line the parade route with spectators. Once your application is processed you will be contacted and assigned a specific location on the parade route. On parade day you will be responsible for getting your group to the designated location by 10:30am.

Parade Route:

The procession will begin at 57th/Halsted and travel South to 63rd & Halsted,
Turn West on 63rd & Halsted to Racine Avenue,
Turn South on Racine Avenue to 65th Street into the Ogden Park.
